

Fiona Holmwood

President

Fiona has held several management roles within state government agencies in positions of Business Strategist, Policy Advisor and Business Development. She has a background in communication as a former producer with ABC Radio and is listed as a preferred trainer in business management within the University of Wollongong's RTO enterprise.

An experienced Board Director, Fiona has made a valuable contribution to several boards ranging from a financial institution to non-profit organisations such as the NSW Reconciliation Council.

Qualifications

Bachelor of Business

Cert IV in Workplace Training & Assessment

Member of Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD)